How to Bid

This is a live auction but email bids are also welcome.

Please send email bids to henleyphilatelic@googlemail.com

Please state name, address, telephone number, lot numbers and maximum bids.

The auctioneer will automatically bid on your behalf up to your maximum.

Bidding Increments

50p increments to £5 £1 increments to £20

£2 increments to £30

Then £32, £35, £38, £40, £42, £45, £48, £50

£5 increments to £100 £10 increments above £100

The preferred method of payment, at the end of the Auction, is by cheque please, made payable to Henley and District Philatelic Society.

Terms and Conditions for Bidders

- Postal or Internet bidders not satisfied with their Lots may return them within seven days of receipt for a full refund, stating reason for return. Collections or bulk Lots are not returnable under any circumstances.
- Any Lot offered "as is" may contain items that are not genuine, and therefore may not be returned for any reason.
- Bidders who have inspected the Lots prior to auction will not be granted any return privileges, except for reasons of genuineness. It will be presumed that all floor bidders will have inspected Lots prior to bidding.
- Bids will only be accepted from persons resident in United Kingdom.
- Bids are accepted or declined at the discretion of the auctioneer
- The auctioneer reserves the right to bid on behalf of absentee bidders and vendors
- The auctioneer may withdraw Lots at any time at his discretion
- No Lots will be sold at less than 10% off the stated reserves
- All Lots must be paid for on the day of the auction by cash or, preferably, UK cheque, unless the winning bid was by e-mail, in which case an invoice will be sent for payment within seven days. Lots will not be posted until payment is received
- At the discretion of the auctioneer, higher value Lots may be retained until cheques have cleared
- Credit cards are not accepted
- No cash is to be sent through the post
- There is no buyer's premium or VAT charged
- Postage and packing will be charged at cost (minimum £1 charge)
- Lots posted will be sent at the buyer's risk
- Postal or e-mail bids must be received by 12 noon on the day of the auction
- Successful bidders who are not paid up members of the HDPS will have 50 pence added to their invoice entitling them to associate membership of the Society on that day, and to participate in the auction
- Where equal postal or web bids are received, the bid submitted first will be deemed to be the higher one

T & Cs for Vendors

- Vendors will be paid as soon as is practicable, but not before 30 working days. (This allows for all revenues to be collected)
- Whilst every effort is made regarding security of all material submitted, responsibility for insurance against loss or damage, howsoever caused, rests with the vendor
- It is the vendor's responsibility to make arrangements for the collection of any unsold Lots
- The preferred method of payment at the end of the Auction is by cheque please, made payable to Henley and District Philatelic Society.
